SIDE LETTER AGREEMENT

This side letter agreement (this "Agreement") is made and entered into on [ ] (the ?Effective Date?) in connection with the purchase by FundCo Fund II, LP (?Investor?) of one or more simple agreements for future equity (collectively, the "SAFEs") issued by [ ], a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), on or about the Effective Date. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the SAFE having a "Post-Money Valuation Cap". For good and valuable consideration, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Pro Rata Rights. Investor shall have the right to purchase its pro rata share of Standard Preferred Stock being sold in the Equity Financing (the "Pro Rata Right"). Pro rata share for purposes of the Pro Rata Right is the ratio of (x) the number of shares of Capital Stock issued or issuable upon conversion of the SAFEs to (y) the Company Capitalization. The Pro Rata Right shall automatically terminate upon the earlier of (a) the closing of the Equity Financing or (b) immediately prior to the closing of a Liquidity Event.

2. Management Rights. If Investor is not represented on the Company's Board of Directors, Investor shall be entitled to consult with and advise management of the Company on significant business issues, including management's proposed annual operating plans, and management will meet with Investor regularly during each year at mutually agreeable times for such consultation and advice and to review progress in achieving said plans.

3. Information Rights. The Company shall deliver to Investor:

(a) within thirty (30) days following the closing of each Equity Financing, the effective post-money valuation of the Company implied by such Equity Financing;

(b) within fifteen (15) days following Investor's request, which request may not be made more than once per calendar quarter, a written statement (email being sufficient) setting forth, as of the end of the last calendar quarter, (i) the Company's annualized revenue and (ii) the aggregate amount of the Company's cash and cash equivalents rounded to the nearest ten thousand dollars; and

(c) following the conversion of the SAFEs, within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, a summary capitalization table showing (A) the number of outstanding shares of each class and series of capital stock of the Company, (B) to the extent then determinable, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion or exercise of any securities that are convertible, exchangeable, or exercisable for shares of Common Stock, including stock options, and the exchange ratio, conversion price, or exercise price applicable thereto, and (C) the number of shares of Common Stock not yet issued but reserved for issuance under any equity incentive plan maintained by the Company, if any, all in sufficient detail as to permit Investor to calculate its percentage equity ownership in the Company as of the end of such calendar quarter.

4. Token MFN Rights.

(a) If, after the Effective Date, but before Investor receives a Token Right (as defined below), the Company grants or otherwise issues a Token Right to any other person or entity, the Company shall provide Investor with written notice thereof, together with copies of the instrument(s) evidencing such Token Right (the "Initial Token Rights Notice"), and such other information regarding the Token Right as Investor may reasonably request. If Investor wishes to receive an equivalent Token Right, Investor shall so notify the Company in writing within ten (10) days following its receipt of the Initial Token Rights Notice, and the Company shall promptly thereafter issue to Investor an identical instrument giving Investor the same terms, rights, and privileges as the Token Right.

(b) If, after the date on which Investor first receives a Token Right, the Company grants or otherwise issues a Subsequent Token Right (as defined below) to any other person or entity, the Company shall provide Investor with written notice thereof, together with copies of the instrument(s) evidencing such Subsequent Token Right (a "Subsequent Token Rights Notice"), and such other information regarding the Subsequent Token Right as Investor may reasonably request. If Investor wishes to receive an equivalent Subsequent Token Right in lieu of its existing Token Right or Subsequent Token Right, as applicable, Investor shall so notify the Company in writing within ten (10) days following its receipt of the Subsequent Token Rights Notice, and the Company shall promptly thereafter amend and restate the instrument(s) evidencing Investor's existing Token Right or Subsequent Token Right, as applicable, so that the terms, rights, and privileges thereof are identical to those of the new Subsequent Token Right.

(c) For the purposes of this Section 4, each of "Token Right" and "Subsequent Token Right" means, with or without consideration, rights to Tokens, rights to acquire Tokens, or similar rights, including, without limitation, token warrants, side letters, simple agreements for future tokens and other similar instruments or agreements (but excluding side letters or ancillary agreements that do not amend or modify the Token terms), in each case issued to a purchaser of Company securities in connection with the Company's sale of such Company securities to such purchaser for bona fide capital-raising purposes. "Tokens" means any digital tokens, cryptocurrency or other blockchain-based assets.

5. Confidentiality. Investor agrees that Investor will keep confidential and will not disclose, divulge, or use for any purpose (other than to monitor or make decisions with respect to its investment in the Company) any confidential information obtained from the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless such confidential information: (a) is known or becomes known to the public in general (other than as a result of a breach of this paragraph by Investor); (b) is or has been independently developed or conceived by Investor without use of the Company's confidential information; or (c) is or has been made known or disclosed to Investor by a third party without a breach of any obligation of confidentiality such third party may have to the Company; provided, however, that Investor may disclose confidential information (i) to its attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other professionals to the extent reasonably necessary to obtain their services in connection with monitoring its investment in the Company; (ii) to any prospective purchaser of any Company securities from Investor, if such prospective purchaser agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 5; (iii) to any existing or prospective Affiliate, partner, member, stockholder, or wholly owned subsidiary of Investor in the ordinary course of business (excluding, in each case, any portfolio companies of Investor), provided that Investor informs such person or entity that such information is confidential and directs them to maintain the confidentiality of such information; or (iv) as may otherwise be required by applicable law, regulation, rule, court order or subpoena, provided that Investor promptly notifies the Company of such disclosure and takes reasonable steps to minimize the extent of any such required disclosure. "Affiliate" means, with respect to any specified person or entity, any other person or entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such specified person or entity, including, without limitation, any general partner, managing member, manager, officer, director or trustee of such specified person or entity, or any venture capital fund or other investment fund now or hereafter existing that is controlled by one or more general partners, managing members or investment advisers of, or shares the same management company or investment adviser with, such specified person or entity.

6. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the earliest to occur of: (a) such time as neither Investor nor any of its Affiliates holds any of the SAFEs, any shares of capital stock issued upon conversion of any of the SAFEs, or any other securities of the Company; (b) the consummation of the sale of the Company's securities pursuant to a registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the firm commitment underwritten offering of its securities to the general public; or (c) the consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company (x) that is effected (i) for independent business reasons unrelated to extinguishing Investor's rights under this Agreement; and (ii) for purposes other than (A) the reincorporation of the Company in a different state; or (B) the formation of a holding company that will be owned exclusively by the Company's stockholders and will hold all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company's successor, and (y) in which the successor entity provides reasonably comparable rights to Investor or the consideration payable to Investor in such transaction consists solely of cash or securities of a class listed on a national exchange. The confidentiality obligations in Section 5 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Very truly yours,
